KANSAS SOLDIER

Anxious to Restore Missing Money to Owner After 47 Years—Interesting Correspondence.

The following letters are of general interest. J. B. Baldwin, an attorney of the 21st Conn. Regimental Association, has turned the check mentioned over to Captain Charles F. Eaton, the treasurer of the association and an investigation is being made to find the rightful owner, if possible.

This incident occurred between 47 and 48 years ago, and at present there are but about thirty surviving members of the company mentioned in one of the letters.

Kansas, Dec. 18, 1911.
Mr. Jerome B. Baldwin:
Dear Sir: I have been trying to get in communication with the members of the 21st Conn. V. Regiment for some time, and learn that you are secretary of some organization of the 21st. It is such in the case, will you please write and let me know. There is a matter of some importance to some members of the 21st and also of importance to me—a matter which should have been fixed up years ago. I am anxious to pay some one a small amount of money, but don't know who to pay it to. Am not sure what company he belonged to.

Please answer as soon as possible.
Address
Secretary Baldwin answered the letters and received in reply
Kansas, Dec. 28, 1911.
Mr. J. B. Baldwin:
Dear Sir: I wish I could see you some minutes, could explain this matter so much better than by letter. The fact is my memory is at fault in regard to dates and locations, but as near as I can recollect, some time in 1864 near Portsmouth or Norfolk, Va. I was driving an army wagon and found a pocketbook in it and a note of money with about $40 in it, and for several days it was a mystery how it came to be there. The regiment was and a day or two after I rode one of my horses several miles trying to find the regiment, but was unable to do so. Soon after this the money was over and about $5, was stolen from me (I think it was stolen), either that or I lost it and I watch the same day.

His wife, back to my regiment at New Brn. N. C., and soon after that to the hospital with yellow fever. I don't suppose that you will find the right owner for the money. If not, you can use it for some member of the regiment, or as you think best for benefit of regiment, which I have no objection to. I have an instinct belief that the one that lost it belonged to Co. H; am not sure. I am sending you my personal check for $50. Interest and principal, which will be paid when presented at bank.

Yours truly,
Kansas.
P. S.—Comrade Baldwin: I have read this letter over and it doesn't appear very satisfactory to me, but am afraid I don't not write one that would suit me any better. In conclusion, would say that for several reasons would prefer not to have too much publicity, but will leave that to your judgment. As I told you before, my conscience hasn't been troubling me until quite recently.

Antoinette Savigny.
Antoinette, the 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Savigny, of Brick Row, died Saturday evening of typhoid fever. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

JEWETT CITY

Mysterious Woman in New London Known in the Borough—Roll Call at Baptist Vestry—Congregational Society's New Year Gathering.

The woman in New London who gives her name as Edna Norton, who was found there by the police nearly two weeks ago, and who has been in turn an inmate of the police station, the almshouse and the hospital, and who goes back to the almshouse today, is well known in Jewett City, having lived here off and on for several years. At one time she kept house for Nelson Moffat, on Mathewson street. She has done housework here in several families, and she has said that she came from Providence. She told here that she was troubled with terrible attacks of neuritis in her head. It was not supposed that she had any money, it being believed that she was a poor, unfortunate outcast.

Annual Roll Call at Baptist Church.

The annual roll call and social gathering of the Baptist church held in the vestry Monday evening was of more than usual interest. In the roll call, instead of the names being read aloud from the church book, each attendant left his or her card at the door.

After Scripture reading by the pastor, the Rev. E. W. Potter, and prayer by Rev. J. W. Payne, the following pleasing programme, carefully prepared by the church members, was presented: Solo, The King of Paradise, Mrs. G. H. Prior; mandolin duet, Mrs. G. H. Prior and Miss Alice McPherson; violin solo, Cavaleria Rusticana, Miss E. Brown; male quartet, When We Stand Before the King, Messrs. C. F. Gardner, R. R. Carver, E. H. Prior and E. H. Brown.

Interpreted between the numbers of the programme was the reading of letters from absent members of the church and reports from the various auxiliary societies—Women's Missionary society by Mrs. A. M. Clarke; Cradle Roll, Mrs. A. M. Clarke; Home Department, Mrs. M. E. G. Wilson.

Following the programme, a social hour, the audience had the pleasure of listening to a forty minute address by the Rev. A. E. Condit, D. D., of Hartford, superintendent mission of the Connecticut Baptist convention. A social hour, with refreshments, followed.

Congregational New Year Gathering.

There was a large attendance at the New Year's gathering at the Congregational church Monday evening. The room was decorated under the direction of Mrs. A. E. Condit.

The guests were received by Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Gane and Dean and Mrs. G. A. Hilditch. After they had arrived, E. F. Burdison announced a very entertaining programme, of which he was in charge, which was opened by a mandolin duet entitled, Sugarplum, played by Miss Florence Wilcox and Wesley Potter, accompanied on the piano by Miss Jean Burdison.

This was followed by the song, Captain Willie, Mrs. F. S. Leonard sang The Gypsy Trail, and gave a solo, and a quartet, The Gypsy Trail, Mrs. F. S. Leonard, Mrs. F. S. Leonard, Mrs. F. S. Leonard, Mrs. F. S. Leonard.

Overlaid in the Congregational church Rev. J. W. Potter, who is attending his vacation with his wife, Mrs. Nora Kelley, on Landon street.

The Willing Workers of the granite mill with Miss Della Strong on Hayward avenue Tuesday afternoon to see.

At the first party Monday evening Mrs. Julia C. Gray and Miss Brown were the first prizes.

Mrs. Mary Pappie and James Burdison of Rochester spent a few days with Mr. J. W. Adams on Hayward avenue the week.

Donald Updon returned to Hartford Sunday, where he is attending a business college.

J. Robert Baker of Millington was a caller here Tuesday.

W. H. Gane, R. F. D. carrier, called here Tuesday evening from a few days' visit with relatives in New York.

Borough Small Notes.

Miss Edna Pettis has returned to Manchester, N. H., after a visit at her aunt's, Mrs. H. E. Paul's.

The American Red Cross company of Glasgow took 1,000 Red Cross stamps in the recent sale of the seals, their name should have appeared in the list given on this Tuesday.

Miss Helen R. Swift returned to Providence Tuesday, after spending several days at Mrs. E. M. Smith's. She was accompanied by her cousin, Earl S. Hancock, who will remain for the rest of the week.

Mrs. R. H. Howard was in charge of the reading room at Slater library Sunday afternoon.

Bridgeport—A. E. Vennes, the retiring superintendent of the Union Typewriter company, was tendered a complimentary dinner and presented a diploma early in the afternoon.
